Brought Back by McMichael.
"A weary wanderer I return,
A sort of shillies Rich Arden;
And feel my cheek with hot shame burn
As I walk into 'Annie's' garden;
For Philip Lee is here to host,
That he my wife—my place has taken;
I walk in flesh and am no ghost,
Although my wife was long forsaken.
"Life was too hard—I left for this,
A coward—stayed but to express her;
With debt and sorrow all to press her;
Twin babies, too—so like us both—
"I would have shared a stony image;
And that is why I swore an oath
To get killed somehow in a scrimmage.
"Yet fate was kind or unkind—what?
I came back living but to seek her;
I found her well off—almost rich,
But sweet at ever—under, in heart,
"My little home, I furnished neatly;
He never let me to my sorrow;
To all his good we had been true,
Folk trust the Lord not for to-morrow.
"Wicked I saw in me to right,
When I leath around me what his stickie,
And others full in me to truly I;
Had only got to seek McMichael;
Assistance gave me all my need,
My little home, I furnished neatly;
And lucky have I been indeed.

Gov. Francis Refuses to Commute the Bald Knob Murderers' Sentences.

"Bull Creek Dave" Walker, His Son and John Matthews Must Swing.

The Murders of William Edens and Charles Green, by Christian County Regulators, Will Be Avenged To-Morrow—Story of the Rise and Fall of Bald Knobblism—The Last Meeting at the Old Lead Smelter—A Review of the Evidence in the Case—The Governor's Reasons.

By Telegram to the POST-DISPATCH.

OSARK, Mo., May 9.—The scaffold on which the Bald Knobbers are to be executed to-morrow is almost completed. It is a rough pine plank structure, erected adjoining the jail on the east end. The drop is about six feet. Wm. Walker was baptized this afternoon, Rev. Thomas Hankin, Elder in the Baptist Church officiating.

The young man made profession of religion several months ago and manifests a wonderful resignation to his fate. On yesterday he addressed a very feeling letter to his mother, bidding her farewell, and requesting her to resign herself to his fate and not to grieve. He also asked her not to come down as she would not be granted the privilege of seeing him or his pa.

A HEARTRENDING SCENE. John Matthews' wife, children and mother came in on Tuesday. The meeting was heart-rending in the extreme. Matthews knelt in prayer with his family and commended them to the care of the Savior of man, after which he shook hands with his wife, children and his old blind mother and returned to his cell. The women who are building the scaffold report that Dave Walker broke down during this forenoon, and refused to talk. The prisoners have requested that their bodies be turned over to J. J. Bruhn. The Walkers desire to be buried at the Sparta Cemetery. John Matthews wants to be buried on his homestead, down in the hills. The Sheriff has summoned a jury of twelve men to witness the execution and a guard of fifty men to keep order.

THE FATAL HOUR. The execution will take place some time between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock p. m. This is a sad day for the citizens of Osark. They had hoped all along that the Governor would commute the sentences, but the last hope has gone. Everybody, except a few, opposed the execution, honestly believing the punishment is unjust, and that the Governor and no person anticipates any trouble, though the town will no doubt be crowded with people.

STORY OF THE CRIME.

The Edens-Green Murder—Gov. Francis Refuses to Commute.

GOV. FRANCIS has concluded to refuse commutations in the cases of David Walker, his son William Walker and John Matthews, under sentence of death at Osark, Mo. The execution will take place to-morrow morning. These men are the Bald Knobbers condemned for the murder of Wm. Edens and Charles Green in March, 1887, near Chadwick, Mo.

The story of the crime involves the march of the organization known as the Bald Knobbers. This organization originated in Taney County, Southeast Missouri, to which the tie-cutting industry had attracted many reckless men and where the law was weak. The organization was secret and out-bound. Its object to punish offenders against the community. All lawlessness, dishonesty and thievery was to be wiped out.

THE ORGANIZATION branched out to Christian County, and on Bull Creek a company was formed with Dave Walker, known as "Bull Creek Dave," at its head. Chadwick is the nearest town to the Bull Creek rendezvous and there a saloon had been established. The Bald Knobbers believed the saloon to be at the bottom of all the evils in the community, and after sundry warnings one night went down to Chadwick and poured out all the liquor into the road.

This was repeated several times, and there were other diversions, such as whipping men and women who cohabited without regard to the marriage law of the State and other "innors against public decency. In time the company became so powerful that the decision to refuse commutations yesterday and addressed a letter to J. J. Delaney, counsel for the convicted murderers, giving his reasons for refusing to grant commutation. Matthews and Wm. Walker from February 14 to April 19, because the case of Dave Walker had not been passed upon by the Supreme Court, and again to May 10, the day fixed by the Supreme Court on alleged improper rulings of the court, but the findings were not disturbed.

Then appeals were made to Gov. Francis, which failed. The Governor came to the decision to refuse commutations yesterday and addressed a letter to J. J. They were "at the old smelter," a secluded valley near the head of the creek, where there had once been erected a lead smelter, no trace of which now remains. For prudential reasons Bull Creek Dave sometimes called meetings at other places, but the old smelter was the principal rendezvous. It is eight miles southeast of Osark and within two miles of Chadwick.

There, on the night of March 10, 1887, the company met. It was proposed to go down to Chadwick and "pour out," i. e., empty the persistent liquor salter cases, but one of the members whose father had been arrested, suspected of being concerned in one of the outrages, implored the company to do nothing at all until after his father's trial, as a "pour out" or a "whipping" might further excite the public and lead to the imposition of a severe penalty on the imprisoned parent. The point was abandoned and then discussion arose as to what was to be done.

OLD MAN JAMES EDENS. Edens was a tie chopper, who had come from Michigan with his wife and son William, and his wife, his daughter and her husband, Charles Green, a year before some months after the night of the Bull Creek company had whipped John Evans, an inmate of Edens' house, for "cutting up in church." The old man would not stand by and see his friend punished, and for his resistance he was laid on his back and whipped.

From that night he had not scrupled to talk boldly about the Bald Knobbers. His son and son-in-law were equally bold and all had earned the enmity of the company.

AN ENGLISH SYNDICATE.

175 REPRESENTATIVES IN THE CITY TO MAKE REALTY INVESTMENTS.

A Special Commissioner's Sale—Numerous Small Transactions in Realty Among the Agents—Building Association Loans—Suburban Purchases for Home Sites—News from a Fairly Active Market.

INDICATES of English capitalists are figuring extensively in local real estate circles. Mr. Moses Greenwood has returned from Wichita very much elated over the part he took in selling over 1,000 lots in that city to an English syndicate, among whom are some of the stockholders in the Kenwood property, formerly known as the Benton farm, which his firm sold for the Pomeroy heirs about a year ago. Among the party who went to Wichita with Mr. Greenwood was J. C. Langhorn of Virginia, President of the Kenwood syndicate, and Lord Sudley, also Wm. Charles Peel, nephew of Sir Robert Peel, and W. P. Butler, the syndicate's solicitor. On their way east the party stopped in St. Louis inquired of Kenwood and expressed themselves so well pleased with the property, and they are not at all anxious to sell it. The whole city was looked over, and so favorably was it considered, Mr. Greenwood says, the party proposes returning here and making some heavy investment purchases. Before leaving the preliminary arrangement was made for creating what is to be known as the Sudley Investment Co., which is to be organized in this city under the State law for the purpose of operating in the property purchased at Wichita.

Adam Beck & Co. followed up a good day's work yesterday report the sale of an irregular shaped lot with an average front of about 70 feet by a depth of 100 feet at the north east corner of Madison and Jefferson avenue for $1,700 from the Mather heirs to Michael R. Seamon who is going to improve the site with flats. The firm also reports the sale of a 25 foot lot on the north side of Lee avenue west of Grand at $1,000 to James Suter and a 25 foot lot on the south side of Monroe avenue west of Grand at $1,000 to Patrick Kline. These lots belonged to W. H. Simpson.

SPECIAL COMMISSIONER'S SALE. By virtue of proceedings in partition, in the case of George E. Adista and others, plaintiffs, against Emilie H. Saenger and others, defendants, the property, a nine-room house at No. 1235 Delmar street, two blocks south of Chouteau street, a front of 80 feet on Dolman street by a depth of about 125 feet 10 inches, to an alley, was sold yesterday by Special Commissioner F. L. Filmore at public sale for $1,000 to Judge J. C. Jones, the price having been reached by slow stages from a bid of $500.

of improved residence property for J. W. Stewart, the builder. Mr. Rutledge says the premises consist of a 25x100 lot with a six-room brick house, No. 423 Page avenue, which was sold to Mathew Park, who is going to make his home there.

BUYING AT BENTON. Gus V. H. Mechin reports the sale of 100x150 feet of ground situated on the north side of Waldemar avenue, 100 feet east of Prather, at Benton station, for $1,000 cash from D. A. Fisher to Jacob Schirmer, who was represented by Louis Picot. The deed to the property has been filed for record.

BUILDING ASSOCIATIONS. The Secretary of the Equality, G. V. R. Mechin, says that association loaned $1,200 at 7 per cent premium at its last meeting, the money to be used for the construction of a building on Chestnut street, west of Jefferson avenue. It appears from the Equality's books that the net gain upon its shares for the month of April was $2.36 per share, while the full gain per share during the life of the association, sixty-five months, is $32.16 per share.

THE FRATERNAL, of which C. F. Vogel is Secretary, reports the loans amounting to $3,400 at 25 per cent, which were made at the meeting last evening, the money being divided among four members, two of whom are going to build, one of them on Thirteenth near Locust street, and the other at Hartford Springs.

M. A. Wolf will let for Hot Springs last evening, expecting to remain there three weeks. Upon his return from there he says he is going in company with John E. Liggett and Geo. E. Thompson to Honolulu, Sandwich Islands.

SAMUEL RATHBELL said today that he had just sold an undivided one-half interest in the Delmar avenue lots which he bought at auction last Saturday for $7,500 to Eugene Williams of the Hamilton-Brown Shoe Co. This gives Mr. Rathbell a profit of about $1,000 on that part of the property sold.

Geo. N. Truesdale reports three sales of improved residence property perfected by him yesterday. The four-room frame dwelling, and 25x100 feet of ground at No. 373 Lee avenue from John E. Wakeland to Jacob Meacham for $205 cash.

A two-story five-room frame house and 25x100 foot lot at No. 409 Bell street for $1,100 from Wm. N. Morris to Viola Berthold.

A cottage and 25x100 feet of ground on the east side of Temple avenue in city block 4262, near Easton avenue from Louis L. Ferris to Fannie E. Aken.

J. W. Stewart reports the sale of two pieces of his own property: one a two-story seven-room brick house and 25x100 feet of ground at No. 620 Morgan street, for $2,100, to John M. Fay, who is going to reside there. Also, the two-story seven-room brick dwelling and 25x100-foot lot at No. 423 Page avenue, for $1,000, to Mathew Park, who purchased the premises for a residence.

AN OLD QUARRY SOLD. Gerry & Scott closed a sale to-day of 25x100 feet of ground on the north line of Grand avenue at 120 feet to Michael Rankin. This property belonged to Judge John H. Terry. In speaking of it he says the place is a particularly fitted quarry, considerably below grade, which accounts for the comparatively low price it sold at, as lots at grade in that locality have been sold for $25 a foot.

THE NEW UNION DEPOT.

Mr. Gould's Little Scheme as "Authoritatively Stated."

A statement concerning the proposed new Union Depot has been authorized by Mr. Gould's St. Louis agents, from which it appears that the Union Railway & Transit Co. of St. Louis and the Terminal Railroad of St. Louis are to be consolidated and the stock increased and name changed to Terminal Railroad Association of St. Louis. The new company is to purchase the Union Railway & Transit Co. of East St. Louis, the Terminal Railroad of East St. Louis, the Union Depot and the Terminal Railroad of St. Louis. It is to secure the transfer to itself of the lease of the bridge and tunnel properties now held by the Missouri Pacific and the Washburn, St. Louis & Pacific, assuming the obligations under that lease, which to the new company will amount to about $700,000 per year.

The purchase money is to be provided by the issuance of $7,000,000 4 1/2 per cent bonds, of which $5,000,000 go to pay for the property of the Union Railway and Transit companies, the terminal companies, the Union Depot and the Terminal Railroad of St. Louis. The balance of $2,000,000 bonds applied to the purchase of such additional real estate as may be needed for the building of a new Union Depot and to the laying of additional tracks, etc.

The property is to be operated in three departments: first, an operating department of the bridge; second, a Union Depot department; and third, a freight department. The first two will be identical the same as at present, whilst the last is to cover such additional improvements as freight buildings, yards, etc., for the better handling of freight.

The A. St. L. has deferred action until the negotiations for its consolidation with the Big Four are ended or advanced. The L. & N. has presented the matter to its Executive Board. Other roads have assented but have not formally ratified the agreement.

Special Suit Sale at the Globe. 5,000 strictly All-Wool Scotch Cheviot Suits, advertised by our competitors as a bargain at $10.75, will go for $7.50 in the great cut-price sale. GLOBE, 705 to 713 Franklin avenue.

The Cruiser Baltimore's Deck Trial. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 9.—A dock trial was given the starboard engine of the United States cruiser Baltimore, now in course of completion at Gramp & Son's ship yards, this city, yesterday. A speed of over fifty revolutions per minute was maintained from 8 a. m. to 9 p. m. on a steam pressure of ninety-five pounds. The engine will also be operated to-day, and on Friday and Saturday the port engine will be worked. Only two of the boilers were in use yesterday and the test is regarded as very satisfactory in every detail.

CAMP JACKSON DAY. The Twenty-Eighth Anniversary to Be Celebrated in Grand Army Posts To-Morrow.

To-morrow will be the twenty-eighth anniversary of the capture of Camp Jackson, and while no public celebration will take place commemorative exercises will be held at several of the Grand Army posts, notably Blair and Hassenpfeiffer, which include among their members many who took part in the capture of the force that occupied that camp. The ground only which Camp Jackson was located is now scarcely recognizable, as it is thickly covered with buildings. Thousands of the citizens of St. Louis will remember the day, which was the most exciting ever known in St. Louis. A body of State troops, under the command of Gen. D. M. Frost, had assembled for the ostensible purpose of drill and camp exercises. The commander of the United States forces, the lamented Nathaniel Lyon, was convinced that the troops were really rebels, and that an attack on the arsenal was intended. He therefore assembled a large volunteer force, which in conjunction with the regulars, surrounded the camp and made prisoners of all who were found there. Among the distinguished officers who led regiments were ex-Gov. Frank Brown, Gen. F. F. Blair, Gen. Frank Sigel and Gen. Rufus Saxton. No resistance was attempted by the militia in the camp, but as the column was moving with its prisoners toward the arsenal the soldiers were assaulted by the crowd. Several volleys were fired in return, about thirty killed and more than fifty wounded. Many of them were innocent spectators, attracted by curiosity. The prisoners were held in confinement at the arsenal for a few hours and then released.

FEELING DECIDEDLY BLUE. Lake Business Reported to Be Dull Beyond Every Expectation.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. BUFFALO, N. Y., May 9.—There is bitter complaint from all quarters that lake business is dull beyond every expectation. Not only are freights low and shippers indifferent, but the low water in the rivers and harbors is a serious drawback itself. It is estimated that deep draught vessels are only loading about three-fourths as heavily as usual. Some people were boasting some time ago of the advantages this was to small vessels, but it is quite plain that they are not to reap any decided benefit, for the movement of grain to the West, by which point the smaller craft have carried grain, has dropped off.

The Saginaw River is scarcely navigable for a full load in any bottom that trades there regularly, and the owner of the schooner F. B. Gardner says he has had to come down from Lake Michigan nearly 100,000 feet short of the usual lumber cargo because of low water. The manager of a lake line said that this would about cancel the extra tonnage that everybody was afraid of. A glance at the local clearance list shows that only five vessels have so far rolled for more than 2,000 tons this season, which alone is enough to fairly substantiate the manager's estimate.

White Caps After a Preacher. ROCKFORD, Ill., May 9.—Rev. George Jacob Schweinforth has been notified that if he does not leave town within ten days he will be taken to the woods, stripped, tarred, feathered and roasted alive, and anyone who interferes will be treated in the same way. He is a leader of the Beaneites and the town is lowering its wrath upon him as Jesus Christ.

THE TEXAS COAST. MARRIED. The Board of United States Engineers on a Tour of Inspection.

Galveston, Tex., May 9.—The Board of United States Engineers appointed by the last Congress to make an inspection of the Texas coast for the purpose of recommending a point or points available for the location of a first-class harbor, arrived in this city yesterday and will remain here for several days. On their way to Galveston they stopped at Sabine Pass to inspect the claims of that locality and were there met by Congressman Stewart, from Houston, who represents the First Texas District in Congress. Yesterday was spent in conferring with Maj. Krust, the engineer in charge of the river and harbor improvements along the Texas coast. The Commissioners to-day will be taken on a trip of inspection to the jetty. On Friday, at 10 a. m., they will hold a public session, on which occasion all persons interested are invited to present their views orally to the board. The Commissioners will go hence to Corpus Christi and will hold a public session there on May 13.
